

in partnership with leeds metropolitan university

Black Dyke Heritage Symposium

29th - 31st May 2009
Gandhi Hall, Headingley Campus,
Leeds Metropolitan University
Leeds Town Hall

Black Dyke Band
Director of Music Dr Nicholas J. Childs
Artistic Directors
Professors Philip Wilby and Peter Graham

Tickets £12 - £10 available from Leeds Town Hall Box Office 0113 224 3801
Festival Administrator Alison Childs 01457 820138 alison@doyenmobile.com

'Supported by Heritage Lottery Fund'

'Partnering the Past and Fostering the Future'

Friday 29th May

7.45 pm Inaugural lecture "History of Brass Bands"
Professor Nicholas Childs and the Black Dyke Band
Exhibition of Brass Band Heritage Golden Period
The Gandhi Hall - admission free

Saturday 30th May

Lower Brass Spotlight - led by David Thornton and Joseph Cook
The Gandhi Hall - admission £5 donation

11.30 Registration
12.00 Warm-up and 'building playing techniques'
12.45 Chamber music sessions
13.45 Celebrity Recital
15.00 In Conversation with Black Dyke Legends
Brass Band Heritage proud of the past and fostering the future.
15.30 Performance Platform
16.00 Massed Finale

To register for Lower Brass Spotlight contact David Thornton 0770 234 4468 thorntoneup@googlemail.com

Saturday 30th May

Gala Concert Black Dyke Band, Gandhi Hall

Conductors Dr Nicholas Childs, Prof. Philip Wilby and Prof. Peter Graham

18.30 Reception Alumni Guests - Acre Room
18.45 Pre - Concert talk Philip Wilby, Peter Graham, Paul Lovatt-Cooper and Philip Harper.
19.30 Performance including
Black Dyke Band performing live to film of Paul Lovatt-Cooper's Immortal and Rubbing Shoulders With Champions
World Premiere, Philip Harper's Willow Pattern
Philip Wilby's Euphonium Concerto and Peter Graham's Harrison's Dream.

Interval Refreshments available - Acre Room Tickets £10 available from Leeds Town Hall
Box Office Tel 0113 224 3801

Sunday 31st May

British Trombone Society Workshop

Albert Room - Admission £5 donation - free to BTS members

10.30 Registration and view exhibition stands
11.00 Massed Blow
12.00 Lunch
12.45 Composers' Collective : Workshop and recording, with Philip Wilby and Emily Howard,
Black Dyke Trombone Quartet, and Steven Sykes, Winner Radio 2
Young Brass Soloist 2009
Music by composers from the Yorkshire Youth Band, Junior RNCM, and prize-winners of the BTS Composers' Competition
13.45 Massed Trombone Ensemble

To register for British Trombone Society Workshop contact Brett Baker 07773 201736 brett.trombone@googlemail.com

Sunday 31st May

Gala Concert Black Dyke Band with special guests Yorkshire Youth Brass Band
Grand Finale with over 200 musicians from Delph, Hebden Bridge, and Wardle Bands performing Tchaikovsky's 1812 Overture
Conductors Dr Nicholas Childs and Philip Wilby

14.15 Pre- concert talk with Philip Wilby and Peter Graham

15.00 Performance including

Montage

Peter Graham

Breathless Alleluia

Philip Wilby

Solar Eclipse

Paul Lovatt-Cooper

Elgar Room Exhibition of Memorabilia, photographs, manuscripts of the Brass Band Heritage

Tickets £14, £12, £10, £8, £7 available from Leeds Town Hall Box Office Tel 0113 224 3801

Festival Administrator Alison Childs 01457 820138 alison@doyenmobile.com